HIT-RUN QUIZ BROADENED

Highway Patrol, Tracing Woman's Whereabouts, Asks Public Co-Operation

Official investigation of the death of Mrs. Cruzetta Dolores Petersen, whose body was found beside the highway near Clarksville Thursday morning, an apparent hit and run victim, went forward in two channels Friday.

Captain E. A. Brewster, of the Highway Patrol, early Friday morning declared he has accounted for the woman's whereabouts from about eleven o'clock until 1:15 o'clock and is anxious to communicate with any parties who may have seen the woman alive after that hour.

"I'm not saying it isn't a hit and run case," declared Captain Brewster, "but the absence of any blood in the vicinity is something which I am unable to explain and find it difficult to reconcile in an automobile accident."

"The coroner tells me that there was comparatively little blood in the body. In my experience in the investigation of automobile accidents, I have found that even a dog, when hit by a car going at the speed at which a car must have been going to have inflicted the injuries on Mrs. Petersen that were found, will bleed and bleed profusely."

"You don't have to go looking for the spot where the dog was hit with a magnifying glass. You can find it readily. We can't find any blood near the spot where Mrs. Petersen's body was found."

"We have found several parties who saw her or a woman answering her description on the highway near the place where her body was found, at intervals from 11 o'clock Wednesday night to about 1:15 o'clock Thursday morning."

SUPERVISORS HIT SINGLE TAX

Defeat Of Proposition 20 Recommended To Voters In Resolution By Board

Voicing the concern which is felt by responsible people everywhere in the State at the threat that a single tax system may be endorsed by some voters unknowingly in the coming election, the county Board of Supervisors this week went on record as recommending a "No" vote on Proposition 20.

The proposition espouses the single tax in the guise of a "sales tax repeal" and would do just that: Repeal the sales tax and automatically institute the disastrous single tax.

The importance which the Board of Supervisors attaches to the necessity of defeating proposition 20 is indicated by the following resolution:

WHEREAS, there will be submitted at the general election Initiative Constitutional Amendment No. 20, which has as its purpose a repealing of the limitation on ad valorem property taxes for state appropriations; and

WHEREAS, it said Amendment No. 20 carries it will materially increase the tax rate of each and every county of this state and in particular it such law was effective at the present time the tax rate in El Dorado County for the present year would be approximately $6.40 and inside the incorporated cities it would be $15.10.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT KNOWN that the Board of Supervisors of the County of El Dorado, State of California, does hereby unanimously adopt this resolution opposing said amendment and recommending to the electors of El Dorado County that they not only cast their ballot against said amendment, but that they diligently campaign against said amendment.

Passed and adopted by the unanimous vote of the Board of Supervisors of the County of El Dorado, State of California, this 24th day of October A. D. 1938.

WM. H. BREEDLOVE,

Chairman of the Board of Supervisors of the County of El Dorado, State of California.

Attest: Arthur J. Koletzke, Clerk.

Cafe Owner Sues Pension Promoters For $50,000

LOS ANGELES (UP)—Trial of a suit brought against Willis Allen and promoters of the $30 every Thursday pension plan by Ham and Eggs, Inc., a Hollywood restaurant, in which the suit charges the public contract made with that of the pension program and that patrons threatened boycotts, today was set for Nov. 4.

The complaint asked $50,000 damages for alleged "loss of good will" and annoyance caused by people telephoning.

The pension plan is known as "Ham and Eggs for Californians."

"Forced Landing" Halts Geese Flight South

WAUSAU, Wis. (UP)—A flight of geese continued southward after a "forced landing" on the Alexander airport assisted by modern aids to aviation.

Airport attendants heard the flock circle the landing field last night. They decided the flock was air locked—unable to find a landing field—and ordered the floodlights turned on.

The flock settled, apparently exhausted, rested and then took off again.

J. W. Landis was among those in town Friday from Diamond Springs in connection with the railroad hearing.

RAIL HEARING UNDER WAY

Taking Of Testimony Opens In S. P. Application To Abandon Placerville Passenger Line

A hearing upon the application of the Southern Pacific Company before the Railroad Commission for permission to abandon its railroad passenger service between Placerville and Sacramento, opened Friday morning in the jury chambers at the courthouse before Examiner Edwards.

The meeting was attended by Division Superintendent W. L. Hack and other representatives of the railroad company, by Harry See, representing the railroad brotherhood, by various residents of the region between Placerville and Folsom served by the railroad, and by Wallace M. Ripley, secretary of the El Dorado County Chamber of Commerce as well as by a number of private citizens of the county seat.

The greater part of the morning was occupied by the presentation by the applicant of testimony intended to support its application. This was subject to some questioning by Mr. See.

It appeared that upon the conclusion of the railroad company's presentation, opposition to the proposed abandonment of the passenger service would be voiced by Mr. See in behalf of the railroad brotherhoods, and by residents of the district between Placerville and Folsom which the line serves.

Chamber of Commerce Secretary Ripley declared that the organization probably will join with opponents to the abandonment of the service.

The facts brought at the hearing, both in support of and in opposition to the application, will be reported to the Railroad Commission by Examiner Edwards for their guidance in consideration of the matter presented by the application.

Suicide Found In 2 Deaths

Single Jury Serves Coroner In Investigation Of Hanging And Shooting Cases

Two inquests were conducted Thursday night at the courthouse by Coroner A. J. Orelli and the same jury served in both inquiries.

In the matter of the death of Robert Beam, the jury found that he came to his death on or about October 20 as a result of "strangulation by hanging with suicidal intent."

In the matter of the death of Gladys Celia Steneberg, the jury found that she came to her death on or about October 26 in the vicinity of Pacific House as a result of a "gun shot wound through the stomach, self-inflicted with suicidal intent."

On the jury were P. C. Stark, Charles Bloom, L. P. Miller, W. E. Costello, Dewey Caccocini, Al Richardson, T. A. Battelle, T. H. Gerle, Roy Vanderhayden, Frank Ghigliotti and E. V. Vennewitz.

Memory Chappel announced Friday morning that private funeral services would be held on Saturday from the chapel for Mrs. Steneberg. Interment will be at Union Cemetery.

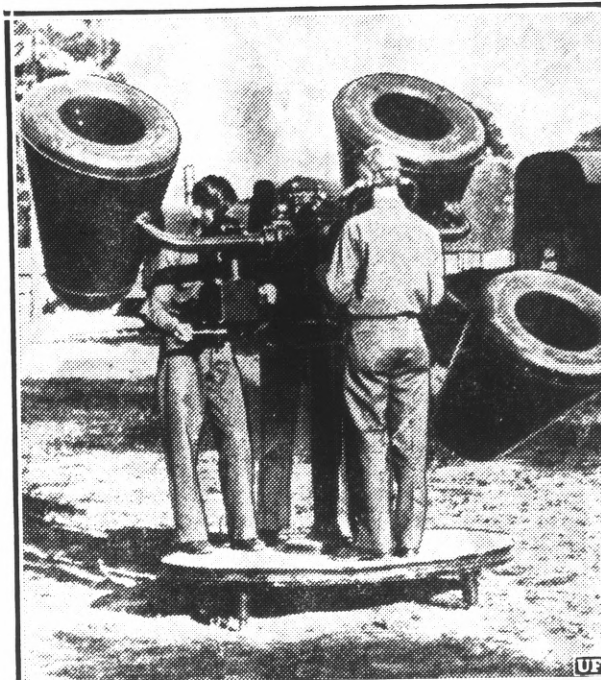

John Chilcott, Mrs. Steneberg's father, was in Placerville Friday morning from his home near Eureka and reported that contrary to published reports, the domestic life of Mrs. Steneberg and her husband was entirely pleasant and harmonious and could not have contributed to the despondency which prompted her act.

He declared that in the interest of fairness to the distressed family, a correction in the report should be made. Mr. Chilcott declared that aside from this feature, our report of the tragedy was correct.

Fleishacker Resigns Banking Post

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—Herbert Fleishacker, one of the nation's ranking financiers, said his "goodbyes" today at the Anglo-California National bank where deposits have risen from $4,400,000 to $200,000,000 in the 31 years he has been president.

Back of his resignation, announced last night, was the shadow of judgment totaling $790,000 returned against him and several associates which he said he felt called for his withdrawal "in the best interests" of the bank.

STREAMLINED "EARS"—United States Army has streamlined its airplane detectors. This picture shows one of the detectors used during the aircraft defense maneuvers at Fort Bragg, N. C., with the listening horn shorter and smaller than before. They are made of balsam wood, with a cellulose covering. While they have no greater hearing power, they stand out all but plane outlines.

HAWAII TRIP THOROUGHLY ENJOYED BY MR. AND MRS. W. S. KIRK

Islam Temple Shrine Cruise To Islands Marks Golden Wedding Anniversary Of Placerville Couple; Settlers "Can Pick Their Own Climate To Suit"

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Kirk, who joined spent two days sight seeing and a trip around the island, some 180 miles of good roads, and had lunch at the Shrine Club.

We left Honolulu at 10 p. m. for the island of Hawaii, where there is the extinct volcano, but we observed that some 100 places or fissures were discharging steam. Authorities claim the volcano is overdue for an eruption.

The last eruption occurred in 1934. At that time it threw rocks weighing over seven tons over the surrounding country. The crater is seven miles long and a half mile wide. The Mountain House is on the edge of the crater, where he had lunch, and could look right down into the crater over 700 feet.

On the return trip to Hilo we drove through a torrential rain storm, which lasted only about 20 minutes. We left Hilo at 6 p. m. for San Francisco.

Nobody who has not visited the islands knows what they have missed. The shrubs, flowers and trees are in bloom all the year around. The new leaves sprout before the old leaves shed, making the foliage green all the year around and also the flowers.

OREGON STATE HOPES TO PUT "JINX" ON CALIFORNIA

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—Oregon State College's hopes of beating the California football team Saturday rest on catching the Bears after a possible "let down" from the Washington game. But Forrester, publicity director for the Beavers said today.

"Catching the Bears between the Washington and U. S. C. games appears to be a nice spot for us," Forrester said.

Storm Warnings Posted With Rain Forecast

"MARIE ANTOINETTE" AT EMPIRE SUNDAY AND MONDAY

One of the screen's outstanding achievements of the year brings Norma Shearer and Tyrone Power to the Empire Theater Sunday and Monday in "Marie Antoinette."

The picture was only recently completed and released at the end of filming for which preparations in research were begun four years ago and advance reports are that the interpretation given the role by Miss Shearer against the background provided by the results of this thorough research provides for her a new triumph in motion pictures.

Saturday's feature at the Empire has Dorothea Kent, Robert Wilcox and Harry Davenport in "Young Fugitives."

Hunter Wounded When Shot "From Behind"

FRESNO (UP)—Young Clyde Higgins, 12, of Fresno, tossed about on his stomach in a hospital here today and mumbled uncomplimentary things about the person who shot him "from behind."

The shooting was accidental, just one of those things that happen on a duck hunting trip, he admits—but it's no less painful or uncomfortable. Clyde, hospital attendants say, will not be able to sit down on a hard chair for some time to come.

John Smith moved from his ranch near Grizzly Flat Saturday to his lower ranch near Diamond Springs. Mr. Smith always spends the summers at the Grizzly Flat property.

WEATHER

SITE ACQUIRED FOR SRA CAMP

Irrigation District Buys Ten-Acre Tract Near Head Of Cedar Ravine

El Dorado Irrigation District has purchased from the Alderson Estate a ten-acre site embracing what is known as the old rifle range, at the head of Cedar Ravine, on which will be erected a SRA camp for approximately 200 men who will be employed in the district's WPA project for rehabilitation of the Diamond Ridge Ditch.

Consummation of the purchase was announced Friday morning by Fred N. Hoskins, engineer-manager of the district.

It is understood that the next development will be for the Board of Directors of the district at its meeting Tuesday, November 1, to lease the site to the SRA, whereupon that agency will immediately begin the erection of the camp.

Upon the completion of the camp, it is expected that it will be immediately manned and work on the rehabilitation project will get under way immediately.

The rehabilitation project, involving the purchase of the Diamond Ridge Ditch by the district, was announced on October 4. It provides for the expenditure of a total of $99,851 of which $79,729 is an approved WPA grant to the district, the balance of $20,122 coming from district funds. It is announced that consummation of the project involves no increase in taxes for the district.

Legion Disavows Knowles Report

California Commander Says Dies Committee Testimony Not Authorized By Order

By JOHN W. DUNLAP

United Press Staff Correspondent

SACRAMENTO (UP)—California voters today pondered two important political developments — disavowal by the California American Legion of testimony made by Harper Knowles before the Dies Committee in Washington, and the possible endorsement of Gov. Frank Merriam by supporters of Raymond Haight, Progressive gubernatorial nominee who dropped from the race.

Knowles has been chairman of the Legion's committee on radical research for five years but his statements in Washington were not authorized by the veterans' organization, it was stated by Dr. Henry G. Watters of Watsonville, California commander.

"Mr. Knowles, so far as I am able to learn," Dr. Watters said, "appeared before the Dies Investigating Committee to give testimony regarding subversive activities in California. This testimony was given without any authorization by the Legion. In fact, the American Legion headquarters had no knowledge of his whereabouts until press dispatches came in from Washington."

2 Draw Jail Terms In Roseville Court

Two men identified as Garden Valley residents were sentenced to jail at Roseville on October 27 on charges involving drunken driving, according to press reports from that city.

The men are Con Sullivan, 32, and Jack Kelly, 42. Sullivan, said to have been the driver of the car, was sentenced to thirty-seven and one-half days in jail in lieu of a $75 fine and Kelly, a passenger in the car and charged with being drunk on a public highway, was sentenced to serve twelve and one-half days in lieu of a fine set at $25.

PARADE OF SPORTS

By HENRY McLEMORE
(United Press Staff Writer)

NEW YORK. (U.P.) — Connie Mack's suggestion that players in slumps be granted vacations with pay instead of suspensions is gratifying to those of us who have long pitied the baseball hands for their hard work and oppressive hours.

It is almost more than one can bear to think of a baseball player's drudgery. He must work nearly six months of each year, and at the sweatshop hours of from 3 p. m. to 5 p. m. The only time he has to rest his weary bones is from the end of September until late in February, when he must leave the slush and cold of his home and go to Florida or California. I have always thought that the sports writing profession needed the pen of a Charles Dickens to portray the suffering of the baseball laborer.

The venerable Mack, manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, would relieve the situation with pay holidays for players who begin to show signs of disinterest during the season. When a hitter fell into a slump he would be given a week's pay in advance and told to slip away for a few days of fishing. A pitcher whose curves began to droop would be given a pat on the back and told to pack up his wife and kids in the car and, at the club's expense, take a trip through the green mountains.

The suggestion is that of a true humanitarian, and I am all for it, but being somewhat of a realist I can't help but admit that its general adoption might well bring complications.

Take the Phillies, for example, a team from Mr. Mack's own home town. The Phillies lost 105 games and won but 45 this year, indicating that most of the players were in a slump most of the time. It would take a travel bureau the size of Thomas Cook and Sons to handle the vacation plans of this crew, and if all of them left at the same time the Phillies wouldn't have enough men left to play one-eyed cat, much less baseball.

These vacations with pay would be expensive to the club owners, too. Mr. Mack didn't say so, but I suppose it is all right to assume that the worse the slump, the longer the trip. Suppose the Cubs had been using this plan in the last world series. Where would they have sent Carl Reynolds? Nothing short of a round-the-world cruise, with a ten-day stop off at Gibraltar, would have cured him.

I am also inclined to believe that when the hot weather came along, and the double headers had piled up, the thought of a quiet canoe trip down the cool and rippling St. Lawrence, or a North Cape cruise, might bring on some deliberate slumps. All a fellow would have to do to earn one of these would be to take a few called third strikes, drop a few flies, or ease up on his fast ball.

Or am I intimating that baseball players, unlike Caesar's wife, are not above reproach? If I am, it is time to quit.

GRANGE NOTES

Hangtown Grange

Hangtown Grange met in regular session at Possati's Hall on Friday evening, October 21. In the absence of Master William Wygersma and Overseer Charles Jacquier, Past Masters Elmer Porini and Charles Shuman took over the respective chairs. The applications of Doris Onetti and Edith Shuman were voted upon favorably and they were given the obligations of the first and second degrees.

Mrs. Stella Snyder, of Kenmoor Grange No. 1146, Millford, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania was present as a visitor and was asked to occupy the office of Pomona. Acting Master Elmer Porini called upon Sister Snyder for a few words and she responded by telling our Grange of the history and activities of Kenmoor Grange. She also stated she intended to be home in time to attend the first November meeting.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Drake was presented with a gift from Hangtown Grange. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Leite had previously been presented with a similar gift. After much discussion and following a motion by Clarence Shuman, it was decided that Hangtown Grange will not meet November 4 because of the conflict with the high school senior play, to be given the same night. Hangtown Grange will hold a special meeting on Friday night, October 28 at the request of Master William Wygersma. As many members as possible are asked to attend as discussion will relate to plans for a booster night and anniversary meeting on November 15. Following the close of the meeting refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed by all present. Elmer Porini, publicity.

HAWAII TRIP RECOUNTED

Honolulu is on the Island of Oahu, and has a larger population than any of the other islands. You can drive for miles and see nothing but sugar cane growing, and also pineapples, which are the principal crops in the islands.

We arrived at San Francisco Wednesday at 9 a. m.

The trip out to the islands was full of entertainment, something doing at all times. We had a fancy dress ball in which most of the passengers participated. We had Max Baer and his brother on board, and in the fancy dress ball they fixed up Max with nothing on but a sheet fixed up as a diaper.

There are two swimming pools on board which were well patronized after we got into warmer weather. We had plenty of amusement on board at all times. The passengers played horse races, Keno and other games. Sometimes the Keno paid as much as $85 to the winner. The races were of the pari mutuel kind and paid as much as $6 to the winner.

The population of all the islands is 393,000, composed of eleven different races of people. The Island of Oahu, which includes Honolulu, has the largest population, some 202,000, the next is the Island of Hawaii, which includes Hilo, with some 73,000. The largest race population is Japanese which have in the islands some 151,000, while the population of the native Hawaiians is only 22,000.

While the islands are in the tropics we had the first snow storm while there. It was on the top of a mountain some 14,000 feet elevation. On account of the mountains in the islands it is ideal for climate. The white people have their homes at quite an elevation above sea level, and you can get the different climates according to the elevation you build your home.

The above figures do not include the army and navy men and their families which is estimated as about 30,000.

Dear Dr. Henry Yee:

In 1914 I was operated on for my gall bladder and appendix in Hot Lake, Oregon. I was also sick in the U. S. Army in 1914 and tried numerous others without relief.

Finally Mr. T. H. Welch of Auburn recommended me to Dr. Henry Yee. After I had tried your herb treatments for six weeks my gall bladder and liver never bothered me any more. If anybody is sick, I highly recommend you.

BUT NOBODY CAN—

interfere with free use of the highways and wharves by farmers or anyone else.

NOBODY CAN carry on MASS picketing.

NOBODY CAN use coercion or intimidation to force free citizens to join unions, or not join them, or other un-American practices.

NOBODY CAN use the excuse of “hot cargo” for boycotting or picketing because a union official declares a commodity “unfair.”

NOBODY CAN boycott those with whom they have no quarrel. In brief—no secondary boycotts.

Troop 57

We hang our heads in shame because our troop placed fifth at the field day. This is bad considering that these were our lowly brethren, troops 95, 67 and Camino.

We are determined to get full camping equipment and have every boy in uniform by November 11 and we are going to spend every bit of our treasury on it. Bill Dillinger, Troop Reporter.

Troop 67

We are feeling bad too about the field day but not as bad as the Honorable brothers from No. 57 because we did not hint that we were good.

Mr. Caldwell gave a short talk on hobbies in our organization. If every boy had a hobby and was interested enough in his hobby it might help him out some day. Later in the evening we tested the boys in an O'Grady drill. Meeting closed at 9:00 p. m.—Bob Weidman, Troop Reporter.

Camino Troop

Members of the Camino troop held a Court of Honor on Thursday night October 27 with Don Hook presiding as judge advocate. Awards were presented as follows:

Tenderfoot, Frank Noyes, Edward Stafford and Dennis Danaher;
Second class, Ray Gaunt;
First Class, Louis Brunello, Ora Nida, Jr.;
Merit badges, to Louis Brunello, for gardening, angling and cooking; to Ora Nida, Jr., in reading;
Scribe's badge, to Ralph Hughes;
Assistant Patrol Leader's badge to Ora Nida, Jr.

McSHANE WARNS STATE AGAINST PASSING PROPOSITION 25

A warning to Californians to vote against Number 25, the Thirty-Fourth day pension plan, November 8, was issued today by Joseph J. McShane, state, civic and fraternal leader and San Francisco attorney.

"If this measure passes and its 9,000 words are written into the Constitution of California," McShane said, "it calls upon the people of this state to purchase stamps, 2 per cent every week, to be affixed to the scrip. It is imperative that the voters realize that these stamp purchases, amounting to $1.04 a year on every $1, means heavier and heavier tax burden on the public.

"Unfortunately, this tax burden would fall most heavily on the poor, because under the plan the Thirty-

Thursday scrip is designed to circulate largely among the less fortunate. Economists, business men, the President of the United States, the Governor of California, and sound-thinking men everywhere, who have read the proposed initiative amendment to our Constitution are convinced that it is primarily a tax, a turnover stamp tax, which will impede rather than help our economic conditions.

"It should be clear to every supporter of the measure," said McShane, "that it cannot work. The business organization, representing the retail and wholesale merchants, and the manufacturers generally have united to announce that they cannot accept the warrants.

"Under such conditions the passage of the measure would mean only disaster to California."

morning and we'd like to know whether anybody saw her alive after that hour."

Sheriff George M. Smith also was investigating the case and although he made no statement in the matter, it was indicated that his investigation thus far accepts the theory that Mrs. Petersen was killed by a hit and run driver.

Widespread efforts to identify the car and its driver included a thorough check of all garages in the region.

Arrangements have been made with Memory Chapel for removal of the body of Mrs. Petersen to San Francisco for funeral services and interment there on Monday morning.

Mrs. Petersen is survived by her husband, Arthur Petersen, a daughter, Madeline, and one brother and two sisters.

She was found beside the highway near Clarksville early Thursday morning by Mr. and Mrs. William Neilson, of Pollock Pines. Tracks of an automobile nearby indicated the woman had been run down by a hit and run driver.

Aimee McPherson Settles Suit Against Magazine

LOS ANGELES, (UP)—The suit for $1,500,000 libel filed against Look magazine by Aimee Semple McPherson, evangelist, has been settled out of court for "a substantial amount," Jos. Fanier, her attorney said today. The magazine had branded Mrs. McPherson "God's best publicity agent."

Subsequent investigation by officials resulted in learning the names of several late travelers, who reported having seen the woman on the highway, walking erratically and at times endeavoring to halt passing cars, at various times during the night from 11 o'clock until 1:15 o'clock.
